Title: Rosalba's journal, and other papers

Author: Dobson Austin

This is an exact replica of a book. The book reprint was manually improved by a team of professionals, as opposed to automatic/OCR processes used by some companies. However, the book may still have imperfections such as missing pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. that were a part of the original text. We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections which can not be improved, and hope you will enjoy reading this book.

COL. W. F. PRIDEAUX, C.S.I.

DEAR COL. PRIDEAUX,

The first of these papers—you will see—was written at your suggestion; and this, I am reminded, is by no means my sole obligation to your varied and accurate knowledge of the Century in which we are both so keenly interested. Will you therefore accept the dedication of the present volume?

Yours sincerely,

AUSTIN DOBSON.

 This Dedication was accepted by Col. Prideaux; but his death took place before the publication of the book.
These papers all appeared in the 'National Review' during 1912-14. Of one of them, 'A New Dialogue of the Dead,' a few copies were struck off for private circulation in February 1913.
