PREFACE

In the following pages will be found the result of many years’ exploration of the interesting and picturesque “London City Suburbs.” It is, of course, no untrodden ground; and the green lanes, and commons, and fair meads of the suburbs—near and distant—are familiar enough. But there is much that is unknown or overlooked, and too much, alas! that is being rapidly obliterated. Of such this volume offers a descriptive, as well as pictorial record.

PERCY FITZGERALD.
