The Famous Missions of California

Hudson William Henry
THE FAMOUS MISSIONS
OF CALIFORNIA

BY
WILLIAM HENRY HUDSON
Lately Professor of English Literature at Stanford University.

WITH SKETCHES IN COLOR
By W. H. BULL
AND MANY OTHER ILLUSTRATIONS

NEW YORK:
DODGE PUBLISHING COMPANY
40 WEST THIRTEENTH STREET
Carmel Mission
To

BONNIE BURCKHALTER FLETCHER

WITH AFFECTIONATE RECOLLECTIONS OF CALIFORNIA DAYS

London, England, 1901
CONTENTS.

I. Of Junipero Serra, and the proposed settlement of Alta California.................. 9
II. How Father Junipero came to San Diego.................................................. 15
III. Of the founding of the Mission at San Diego.......................................... 21
IV. Of Portola's quest for the harbour of Monterey, and the founding of the Mission of San Carlos................................................................. 25
V. How Father Junipero established the Missions of San Antonio de Padua, San Gabriel, and San Luis Obispo.............................................................. 31
VI. Of the tragedy at San Diego, and the founding of the Missions of San Juan Capistrano, San Francisco, and Santa Clara........................................... 35
VII. Of the establishment of the Mission of San Buenaventura, and of the death and character of Father Junipero......................................................... 41
VIII. How the Missions of Santa Barbara, La Purisima Concepcion, Santa Cruz, Soledad, San Jose, San Juan Bautista, San Miguel, San Fernando, San Luis Rey, and Santa Inez, were added to the list........................................ 47
IX. Of the founding of the Missions of San Rafael and San Francisco Solano........ 51
X. Of the downfall of the Missions of California............................................ 55
XI. Of the old Missions, and life in them...................................................... 61
XII. Of the Mission system in California, and its results................................. 67