The law of insurance, as applied to fire, accident, guarantee, and other non-maritime risks

May John Wilder
Title: The law of insurance, as applied to fire, accident, guarantee, and other non-maritime risks

Author: May John Wilder

This is an exact replica of a book. The book reprint was manually improved by a team of professionals, as opposed to automatic/OCR processes used by some companies. However, the book may still have imperfections such as missing pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. that were a part of the original text. We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections which can not be improved, and hope you will enjoy reading this book.
THE LAW OF INSURANCE.

VOLUME II.
FIRE, LIFE, ACCIDENT, GUARANTEE
AND OTHER NON-MARITIME RISKS.

BY JOHN WILDER MAY.

THIRD EDITION,
REVISED, ANALYZED, AND GREATLY ENLARGED.

BY FRANK PARSONS.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

Vol. II.

BOSTON:
LITTLE, BROWN, AND COMPANY.
1891.
CHAPTER XVII.
The Premium ........................................  703

CHAPTER XVIII.
Other Insurance and Overvaluation .....................  789

CHAPTER XIX.
Assignment of the Policy ................................  831

CHAPTER XX.
Beneficiaries ..........................................  885

CHAPTER XXI.
Of the Risk, its Duration and Extent .................  903

CHAPTER XXII.
Of the Loss and its Adjustment .........................  963

CHAPTER XXIII.
Subrogation ...........................................  1026

CHAPTER XXIV.
Creditors ..............................................  1053
CHAPTER XXVII.
Arbitration ........................................ 11

CHAPTER XXVIII.
Of Waiver and Estoppel .......................... 11

CHAPTER XXIX.
Of Accident Insurance .............................. 11

CHAPTER XXX.
Of Guarantee and other Kindred Insurances ........................................................................ 12

CHAPTER XXXI.
Of Mutual Insurance .................................. 12

CHAPTER XXXII.
Remedies, Evidence, Pleading, Insolvency ........................................................................ 12

INDEX .................................................. 13
THE PREMIUM.

ANALYSIS.

PREMIUM.

Payment of, usually made a condition of the completion of the contract, § 340.

WHAT IS PAYMENT?

check, note, any mode agreed on, §§ 345, 345 B., 345 E.
if no mode is fixed the agent may use his discretion, § 345.
may be in depreciated funds if such is the usage, § 345.
may be in dividends, mutual accounts, &c., § 345 a.
but profits not yet declared as dividends will not be applied to pay premiums to save a forfeiture, § 345 a.
may be by advertising, board, &c., § 347.
may be by order on a third person, § 345 B.
a marginal provision that premium is payable, part in cash and part by note, is good. § 345 B. an offer of payment by a banker, the agent saying he will leave it in bank, is equivalent to a deposit of the amount, § 345 B.
a credit on the books of the company by a general agent is payment, § 345 B.
payment to agent is good though he converts it to his own use, § 345 B. an agreement to pay in groceries, good (N. J.), § 345 B. in professional services, not good, (N. Y.), § 345 B.
evidence that agent had no authority to receive anything but cash, § 345 B.
where such is the case, setting off debts between agent and insured does not bind the company, § 345 B.
part payment will not save the policy, even pro tanto, § 345 C.
tender is sufficient if made every time a premium comes due, §§ 345 D., 345.

PREMIUM NOTES, §§ 345 A., 345 E.—II.

are loans, 345 A.
may constitute payment, 345 E.
authority to a company to issue policies is authority to take premium notes, § 345 E.
may be good though the company was insolvent at their execcution, § 345 E.
void if risk never attaches, § 345 E.
may be written to mature at loss, § 345 E.
no presentment, demand, or notice necessary, § 345 F.
the company cannot claim the note and repudiate the
of the transaction, § 345 G.
misrepresentation of agent, a defence to suit on, § 345 G.
but not informality in filing copy of charter with auditor, § 345 G.

Recovery by the company.
on a note, though the policy is suspended by its non-ment, § 345 H.
even after loss in the period of suspension, § 345 H.
and the whole unpaid premium may become due
be recovered on failure to pay one instalment § 345 H.
the company may deduct unpaid premium from the amount
due on the loss, § 345 H.
even though the statute of limitations has run on the note, § 345 H.

By whom payment may be made,
any one may pay premiums, but there will be no lien on insurance money for them except by contract, trust rogation, or right of a mortgagee to add charges, even preserve the property, § 349 A. contract to pay, good as to minor beneficiary, 349 A.

To whom payment is to be made.
must be to authorized agent, § 349 B.
or actually come to company’s hands.
correspondence admissible to show authority, § 349 B.
handing over a policy for delivery gives said auth-§ 349 B.
payment to apparent agent, good, § 349 B.
facts may hold company in spite of a provision in by which are part of policy, that the agent must be appor
by seal, § 349 B.
authority to receive first premium does not authorize ret
of after dues, § 349 B.
if an agent receives payment from himself after forfeit
his policy, it is a fraud, § 349 B.

Place.
payment at wrong, not good, § 348 A.
parol admissible to show understanding as to, § 348 A.