

---

Colchester

Cutts Edward Lewes

---

Title: Colchester

Author: Cutts Edward Lewes

This is an exact replica of a book. The book reprint was manually improved by a team of professionals, as opposed to automatic/OCR processes used by some companies. However, the book may still have imperfections such as missing pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. that were a part of the original text. We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections which can not be improved, and hope you will enjoy reading this book.

Historic Towns

EDITED BY

EDWARD A. FREEMAN, D.C.L. & Rev. WILLIAM HUNT, M.A.

COLCHESTER

HISTORIC TOWNS.

EDITED BY

E. A. FREEMAN, D.C.L. and the REV. WILLIAM HUNT, M.A.

Crown 8vo. 3s. 6d. each.

LONDON. By Rev. W. J. LOFTIE. With 3 Maps.

'A thoroughly readable book. . . Will long remain the handbook to the history of our greatest city.'—ATHENÆUM.

EXETER. By E. A. FREEMAN. With 4 Maps.

'The limitations of Mr. FREEMAN'S method do not affect the goodness of his work within the lines which he has chosen; and the oddity of his recondite knowledge only adds a pleasant flavour to his pages.'—SATURDAY REVIEW.

BRISTOL. By Rev. W. HUNT. With 4 Maps.

'Mr. HUNT'S chapters are written with the accuracy and from the research of a scholar; at the same time he is careful never to lose sight of the popular character aimed at by this series of books, and what might in less skilful hands have been a jejune chronicle become a fresh and engaging narrative.'—SCOTSMAN.

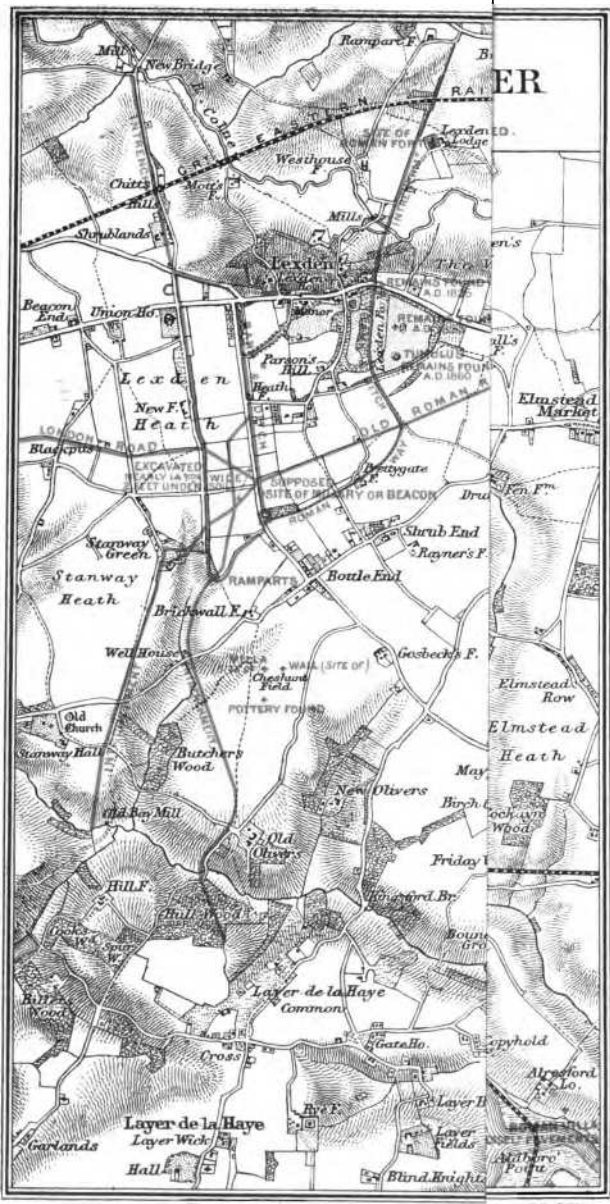

OXFORD. By Rev. C. W. BOASE. With 2 Maps.

'A most careful, interesting, and trustworthy book, which every Oxford man and every Commemoration visitor would do well to purchase.'—OXFORD REVIEW.

COLCHESTER. By Rev. E. L. CUTTS.

~~~~~
London: LONGMANS, GREEN, & CO.

Statute Miles 0 1/4 1/2 3/4 1 2 Edw. Waller.

---

Historic Towns

COLCHESTER

BY THE

REV. EDWARD L. CUTTS, B.A.

sometime Hon. Sec. Essex Archaeological Society

LONDON
LONGMANS, GREEN, AND CO.

AND NEW YORK : 15 EAST 16th STREET

1888

All rights reserved

---

Libr.
Comm. in 3-18-38
35-847

PREFACE.

—♦—

IN writing this book I have made free use of every accessible source of information known to me. As it has been thought undesirable to weight the text with acknowledgments, I desire emphatically to record here my obligations to Mr. J. Horace Round's papers in the Antiquary on the Colchester Domesday; to Mr. Laver, for information on the Roman roads and earthworks; and to Mr. Joseph Jacobs, B.A., for the novel and valuable information on the Jews in Colchester contained in Chapter XIII.

0 5-21-38 Sec

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

THE OPPIDUM OF THE TRINOBANTES.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | PAGE |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Colchester the Earliest of the Historic Towns of England—Founded by Claudius as a Colony; before that, the RoyalTown of Cymbeline; before that, the Oppidum of theTrinobantes—Mandubratius, Prince of the Trinobantes, fleesto Cæsar—Cæsar invades Britain—The Tribes unite underCassivellaunus; are defeated; make Peace with Cæsar—Mandubratius restored to his Princedom . . . . . | 1    |

CHAPTER II.

THE ROYAL TOWN OF CUNOBELIN.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|
| Authorities for the Chapter—Native Chronicles—Coins—Inci-dental Notices in the Classical Writers—Effect of Cæsar'sExpeditions—Growth of Civilisation—Tasciovanus—Cuno-belin—Cunobelin wins the Princedom of the Trinobantes—Description of the Trinobantine Territory, and the Fastnessof Camulodunum—Flight of Adminius to Caligula; theEmperor's Ovation for his Acquisition of Britain . . . . . | 6 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|

CHAPTER III.

THE COLONIA OF CLAUDIUS.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | PAGE |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Bericus flees to Rome—The Emperor resolves to undertake the Conquest of Britain—Aulus Plantius conducts the Invasion—Sends for Claudius; who comes, wins a Battle before Camulodunum, and receives the Submission of the Southeast of the Island—Returns and receives a Triumph—The War continued—Ostorius defeats Caractacus; disarms the Iceni—Founds a Colony at Camulodunum—Description of the Foundation and Constitution of a Colony—Revolt of the Iceni and Trinobantes under Boadicea; its Suppression . . . | 16   |

CHAPTER IV.

THE RELICS OF COLONIA.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                      |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| The Site of Colonia; Date of New Town; Walls; Streets and Gates; Houses; Pavements; Absence of Sculptured Stone; Possible Use of Cement—The Roads and Suburbs—The Cemeteries: Inscriptions . . . . . | 32 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|

CHAPTER V.

BRITISH CHRISTIANITY.

|                                                                                                                                                                                     |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| The Adelfius of the Council at Arles not Bishop of Colonia Camulodunum—No Traces of Christianity except a Bone Pin, and Crosses scratched on Vases—The Coel and Helena Legend . . . | 48 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|

CHAPTER VI.

COLNECEASTER.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| No History of the East Saxon Conquest—Problem of the Fate of the Britons; of the Towns; of Colonia—Colneceaster—The Danish Occupation; the Recovery of Colchester from the Danes by the Saxon Men of the Neighbouring Country—Eadward visits and repairs it in 920—Witenagemót held here in 931 . . . | 54 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|