PREFACE.

It has frequently been suggested to me that I ought to write an account of my trip to the countries from which I have just returned, as a means of making something for the support of my family, as well as affording useful information concerning those beautiful lands; and I now undertake to comply with those suggestions.

50
But, as I can spare very little time, I shall simply aim to relate such things as I would tell in a social circle, and in the same style;
hoping that some good may be done, as the readers shall see the great religious privileges
they enjoy, compared with the people of Mexico, and their consequent obligations

God for a free Bible in our native tongue.

I am sorry that my want of means caus
the price to be higher than it otherwise wou
be.

B. R. DUVAL.

BALTIMORE, April, 1879.
