A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

SOME Apology may be thought necessary for the Publication of so small a number of Cases as compose the present Volume. The fact is, that some of them having been handed about in Manuscript, and having been made use of in Court, a strong opinion was expressed by several Gentlemen of the Profession, that, however few in number, they were too valuable not to be made public.

They were certainly not intended by the learned Judge for publication, and some of them are not perfect. There is no doubt but they would have been all equally valuable, if they had all received his last Correction; and still more, if his modesty had permitted him to revise them with a view to publication. As it is, the Profession and the Public will make allowance for the disadvantages under which they are presented to them.
