Title: Choice Consolation for the Suffering Children of God

Author: Eastburn Manton

This is an exact replica of a book. The book reprint was manually improved by a team of professionals, as opposed to automatic/OCR processes used by some companies. However, the book may still have imperfections such as missing pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. that were a part of the original text. We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections which can not be improved, and hope you will enjoy reading this book.

Dear Mother
I have just received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same.

PREFACE.

THE compiler of the following pages, long trained in the school of affliction, has learned, through a fellowship in suffering, to feel the deepest sympathy for "all those who in this transitory life are afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate." The power to express that sympathy by ministering in person at the couch of sickness, or in the house of the mourner, being denied to her, through physical weakness, she sends forth this book in the earnest hope it may reach and comfort many dear children of God who may be "for a season in heaviness through manifold temptations."

May the Lord send home its words of strong faith and "lofty cheer" with much power and sweetness to many, many sorrowing hearts. c.
