The life and letters of Washington Irving

Irving Pierre Munroe
Title: The life and letters of Washington Irving

Author: Irving Pierre Munroe

This is an exact replica of a book. The book reprint was manually improved by a team of professionals, as opposed to automatic/OCR processes used by some companies. However, the book may still have imperfections such as missing pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. that were a part of the original text. We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections which can not be improved, and hope you will enjoy reading this book.
From the original drawing by Vanderlyn, Paris, 1805.

Your affectionate friend, Washington Irving

(1808)

NEW YORK: G. P. PUTNAM
THE
LIFE AND LETTERS OF
WASHINGTON IRVING.

BY HIS NEPHEW
PIERRE M. IRVING.

VOLUME II.

NEW YORK:
G. P. PUTNAM, 441 BROADWAY.
1864.
Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1862, by
PIERRE M. IRVING,
In the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.

JOHN F. THOW,
PRINTER AND STECKOTYPHER,
55 Greene Street.
CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.
Letter to William Irving—A steamboat enterprise—Embarks the value of his literary property in it—How William and John regarded the project—Lodgings in Paris—Growing popularity of the Sketch Book in England—Its parentage ascribed to Scott—Correspondence on the subject—Christmas invitation—Murray authorizes draft of one hundred guineas for Sketch Book, in addition to the terms agreed upon; and publishes Knickerbocker—Letter to Leslie—His designs for Knickerbocker—His May-day—His likeness of Geoffrey—Peter Powell's burlesque account of its costume—The Author's sensitive comment, and Leslie's reply—Subjects chosen by Leslie for Knickerbocker—The Author's opinion of them—Increasing reputation in England, 13

CHAPTER II.
Makes the acquaintance of Thomas Moore, the poet—Visit to the prison of Marie Antoinette—Letter to Brevoort—Reasons for remaining abroad—Moore—Canning—Moore's hint of the origin of Bracebridge Hall—Another glimpse of Irving from Moore—John Howard Payne—Talma—His performance of Hamlet—Letter to Leslie—Kenney, author of Raising the Wind, etc.—Luttrell—Introduced to the Hollands—Murray begs his acceptance of an additional one hundred pounds for the Sketch Book—The Author's letter thereupon—Rends manuscript to Moore—Bancroft—Sets off for England July 11th, hoping to have something ready for the press by autumn, 33

CHAPTER III.
The coronation of George IV.—Meeting with Scott—Detained in London about a play of Payne—Dragging of the steamboat affairs—Letter to Peter thereupon—
CONTENTS.

CHAPTER IV.

Return to London—Letter to Ebenezer—Transmits first volume of Bracebridge Hall—Moses Thomas—Cooper and The Spy—Sends off Vol. II. Bracebridge Hall—Makes contract with Murray for publication in England—Letter to Peter—Begins to make calls—Goes with Moore to breakfast at Holland House—Letter to Brevoort—John Randolph—Mrs. Siddons—Visit to Wimbledon, one of the country seats of Earl Spencer—Meeting with Rogers—Letter to Mrs. Paris—Visit to the country seat of Thomas Hope—Lines written in the Deep Dene Album—Letter to Brevoort—Anastasius—Rogers—Mathews, the comedian—Preparing for an excursion into Germany, .................................................. 70

CHAPTER V.

From London to Heidelberg—Amsterdam—Aix-la-Chapelle—the cathedral—Old custom—An old acquaintance—Convoy to Wisbaden—The German style of living—Scene of the Spectre Bridgroom—A German carriage and driver—Mayence—A continental inn—Introduction to the Tales of a Traveller—Katrina—A tedious malady—The Hudson and the Rhine—Frankfort—The fair—The vintage—Heidelberg—Letter from Moore, .................................................. 90

CHAPTER VI.

CHAPTER VII.

From Vienna to Dresden—Prague—Puts up at Hotel de Saxe; Dresden—Intimacy with an English family—Mrs. Fuller’s impressions of the Author—Letter to Leslie—Extracts from note-book—Presentation at court—Dinner with the royal family—Private theatricals—Letter to Mrs. Van Wart—Letter to Peter—Boar...
CONTENTS.

-hunt—The conspiracy—Plays Sir Charles Rackett in Three Weeks after Marriage—Peter—New discouragements with the steamboats, 123

CHAPTER VIII.

Letter to Leslie—Extracts from note-book—Performance of Don Felix in The Wonder—Birthday Tableaux—Presented to the Queen of Bavaria—Fined for firing a pistol—Italian, French, and German Studies—Lines to Miss E. Foster, on her birthday—Leaves Dresden on a tour with Captain Cockburn to the Giant Mountains—Detained at Prague by the illness of his companion—Extracts from letters to Mrs. Foster—Returns to Dresden—Journey from Dresden with Mrs. Foster and family—Storm—Adventure—Extracts from letter to Peter—Arrives at Paris, 144

CHAPTER IX.

At Paris—Out of spirits for literary occupation—Thinks of German subjects—Falls in with Payne, the American dramatist—Embarks with him in dramatic labors—Peter’s economy—Washington’s philosophy thereupon—Busy on Richelieu—Visits Peter at Havre—New lodgings on his return—Payne goes to London with Richelieu, Married and Single, and a rough copy of Azendai—Letter from Payne—Representation of Charles II.—Payne’s opinion of it—Copp’s song and Charles Lamb—Results of the joint theatrical speculations—The fate of Richelieu—Dedication by Payne, 164

CHAPTER X.

CHAPTER XI.

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XII.

CHAPTER XIII.

CHAPTER XIV.

CHAPTER XV.

Passages from letters to Pierre Munro Irving—Letter to Brevoort—Allusion to Cooper, Halleck, Bryant, Paulding—Letter to Murray, offering Columbus—Extracts from Diary—Longfellow—Arrangement with Murray for Columbus—Wilkie—Literary projects—Close of the year 1827, 255

CHAPTER XVI.

Letter to Prince Dolgorouki—Enters more into society at Madrid—Gay assemblages—Tableaux—Wilkie—His difficulty in getting admitted to a sight of Flemish paintings—The Author in the library of the Jesuits' College—Note to Dolgorouki—Publication of Columbus by Murray in London, by the Carvills in New York—Arrangement with Carey, Lea & Carey, of Philadelphia, for the publication of the four previous works of the Author for a term of years—Letter to Brevoort—Departure from Madrid on a tour through the southern parts of Spain—Letter to Mademoiselle Belvillier—Description of the Journey from Cordova to Granada—Admiration of the Moors—The Alhambra—A despatch from the Court of Lions—Quest for the portal by which Boabdil rallied forth—The poor devil guide, 272
CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XVII.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Extracts from Diary—Wilkie and the painting of St. Thomas—Letter to Alexander H. Everett—Quarters at Mrs. Stalker’s—Letter to Alexander H. Everett, after receiving his opinion of Columbus—Letter to Prince Dolgorouki—Character of the Andalusians—The churches rich in paintings—Letter to Mademoiselle Bolviller—The accumulating debt of correspondence—Bull fights, his notion of Seville, a residence for a court—San Juan de Alfarache—Relics of Moorish labor and Moorish taste,

CHAPTER XIX.

Removes to a cottage in the vicinity of Seville—Letter to Alexander H. Everett—Letter to Mademoiselle Bolviller—The quiet and comfort of his new quarters—The cathedral of Seville—Letter to Prince Dolgorouki—Impressions of Spanish beauty—Advice—Wilkie—Letter to Alexander H. Everett respecting Columbus—Letter to Peter Irving—Conquest of Granada—Arrangement with Carey—Journey to Palos—Letter to Alexander H. Everett, in reply to one announcing the King’s permission to him to inspect the archives of the Indies, and giving him an extract from his critique on Columbus,

CHAPTER XX.

Change of quarters to Port St. Mary—Extracts from letter to Peter—Transmits sample of Conquest of Granada to London—Sends off corrected editions of Columbus to England and America—Literary plans—Longing to return to America—Extracts from Diary—Removal from the Cerillo to the Caracol—Bury on Vasco Nuñez—Extract from a letter to Prince Dolgorouki—Letter to Ebenezer Irving—Sends MSS. of the Conquest of Granada—Murray’s offer to him to conduct a magazine, and to write for the Quarterly—Repugnance to the proposal—Letter to Alexander H. Everett, noticing Murray’s offer—Conquest of Granada as an historical production—Extract of letter to Prince Dolgorouki on the subject.

VOL. II.—1*
CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XXI.

The Author returns to Seville to make researches in libraries—Hears of a threatened abridgment of Columbus—Resolves upon an epitome himself—A rapid operation—Letter to Peter on the subject—Letter to Alexander H. Everett, respecting some points in the history of Columbus—His impression of the abridgment as a literary composition—Abridgment given gratuitously to Murray—Sends copy to America—Bargain with the Carvillas for second edition of Columbus and the Abridgment—Receives tidings of the death of Hall—Letter to a relative on the subject—Passage respecting him from a letter to Brevoort—Anecdote of invention—Lockhart and Coleridge’s opinions of Conquest of Granada—Bargain with Murray for it—Letter to Peter on the subject—Meditates article for a Christmas work of Allan Cunningham—Busy on Don Roderick—Close of 1828, 330

CHAPTER XXII.

CHAPTER XXIII.

SOJOURN IN THE ALHAMBRA.

The Governor’s quarters—An unexpected visitor—Passages of letters—The Conquest of Granada published in London—Finishes the Legends of the Conquest of Spain—Letters to Peter on the subject—Letter to Dolgorouki—Duke de Gor—Extracts from letters to Ebenezer and Peter—Hears of his appointment as Secretary of Legation to London—Letter therupon to Mr. Wetherell at Seville—Indifference to official honors—Letter to Louis McLane—To Mr. Everett—His plan of return broken up—Letter to Peter—Reply to the objection that the appointment was below his talents and position—A travelling companion turns up, with whom he proposes to leave Granada, 331

CHAPTER XXIV.

Departure from Granada—Last look of the Alhambra—Journey in a tartana—Unexpected civility of the Duke de Gor—Robber mementoes—Spanish travelling